

Overview of HLLDS Board Positions

The constitutional responsibilities for The Harvard Law Latter-day Saints Executive Board are as follows:

President — “The President shall lead the Executive Committee, call meetings, serve as parliamentarian at Election Meetings and Amendment Quorums, set forth budget decisions, and coordinate the general business of HLLDS. The President shall serve as HLLDS’ primary liaison with other HLS student organizations, the HLS administration, and other individuals and entities.”

Treasurer — “The Treasurer shall maintain the financial records of HLLDS, ensure reimbursement for approved expenses, and submit HLLDS’ financial records as required. The Treasurer shall assume the responsibilities of the President in the event that the President resigns or is unable to fulfill the duties attendant to the position.”

Outreach Chairperson — “The Outreach Chairperson shall lead the Outreach Committee, which shall be responsible for publicizing events, [omitted via Amendment IV], supporting alumni relations, recruiting prospective LDS students, and promoting interfaith outreach initiatives.”

Events Chairperson — “The Events Chairperson shall lead the Events Committee, which shall be responsible for planning and executing the events of HLLDS.”

Academic & Records Chairperson — “The Academic & Records Chairperson shall lead the Academic & Records Committee, which shall provide academic support to the members of HLLDS, maintain HLLDS’ website and membership resources, and record organizational history.”

Speakers Chairperson — The Speakers Chairperson shall be “responsible for planning and executing events involving guest speakers.”

